Dear Sir/Madam,

please read the following text carefully. We refer to the publication of your International Patent Application, application number: , publication number: , publication date: , in the public patent bulletin. We offer the registration of your patent application on the basis of our own data records in our private database which appears on the world wide web under www.wpt-index.com. If you accept this offer, the entry will include the company data named above and the patent data listed to the end of this text. The offer will be deemed accepted with the payment of the registration fee specified below. The publishing serves the constantly increasing demand for information, particularly with regard to your competitors and business partners. Please notice, that WPTI is a private company not associated with any official organisation and we don't have any business relationship to any such organisation as of yet. Currently there is also no business relationship between you and WPTI. This offer for registration is not an invoice. You are under no obligation to pay the amount unless you accept this offer. The offer has a validity of 14 days. In case of acceptance by payment, you will enter a legally binding contract for a renewable period of one year between you and WPTI. The terms and conditions cited overleaf are the basis of this contract and are deemed accepted with payment. WPTI thanks you for your attention.

Best regards,
