UNITED NATIONS INTERREGIONAL CRIME AND JUSTICE RESEARCH INSTITUTE
(UNICRI)

UNICRI is a United Nations entity mandated to assist intergovernmental, governmental and non-governmental organizations in formulating and implementing improved policies in the field of crime prevention and criminal justice. UNICRI has initiated a program to counter the involvement of organized crime in counterfeiting and to address the adverse impact of this criminal activity on consumers' health and safety. UNICRI's activities in that field range from research to the implementation of training courses targeting police forces, customs and prosecutors.

Headquarters: UNICRI was established in Turin, Italy, in 1967.
