

PROFILE

Maingaila's passion for children has been a key contributor to the success of her business. As a UNICEF worker, Maingaila has gained valuable experience working with kids and understanding their needs. This experience has helped her to create a brand that resonates with children, allowing them to see themselves through every product.

Her products are not only fun and engaging, but also inspire creativity and imagination. By focusing on the needs and desires of children, She has built a brand that is both successful and meaningful.

She understands that children are not just consumers, but also important members of society who deserve to be celebrated and empowered. This approach has not only helped her business to thrive, but has also made a positive impact on the lives of countless children around the Zambia.
