

Supporting Green Innovation and Technology Transfer through SAIP

Eng. Ali Alharbi

الهيئة السعودية للملكية الفكرية
Saudi Authority for Intellectual Property

 | @SAIPKSA | SAIP.GOV.SA | 920021421

Introduction to SAIP

The Saudi Authority for Intellectual Property aims to regulate, support, develop, sponsor, protect, enforce and upgrade the fields of intellectual property in the Kingdom in accordance with international best practices, and it is organizationally linked to the Prime Minister, Established in 2018.

Types of intellectual property rights :

 Patent

 Industrial design

 Plant varieties

 Trademarks

 Copyright

 integrated circuit.

Saudi Green Initiative

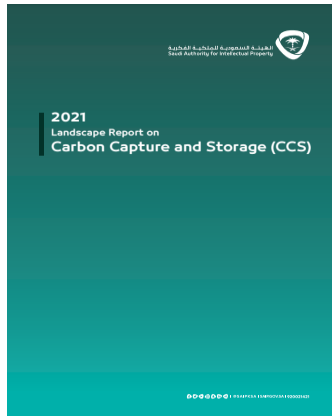

The contribution of the Saudi Authority for Intellectual Property in clean energy comes as part of the government's efforts, as the Kingdom launched the Saudi Green Initiative, which aims to:

Paving the way to net zero emissions by 2060

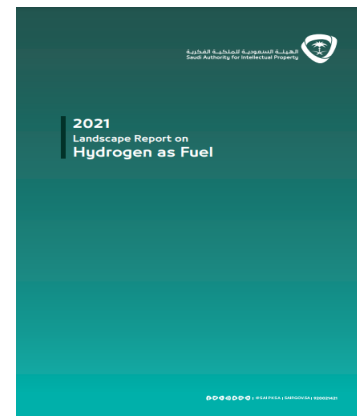

<https://www.greeninitiatives.gov.sa/ar-sa/>

SAIP's Green Innovation and Technology Transfer Programs

Release carbon capture and storage report

Release Hydrogen as Fuel report

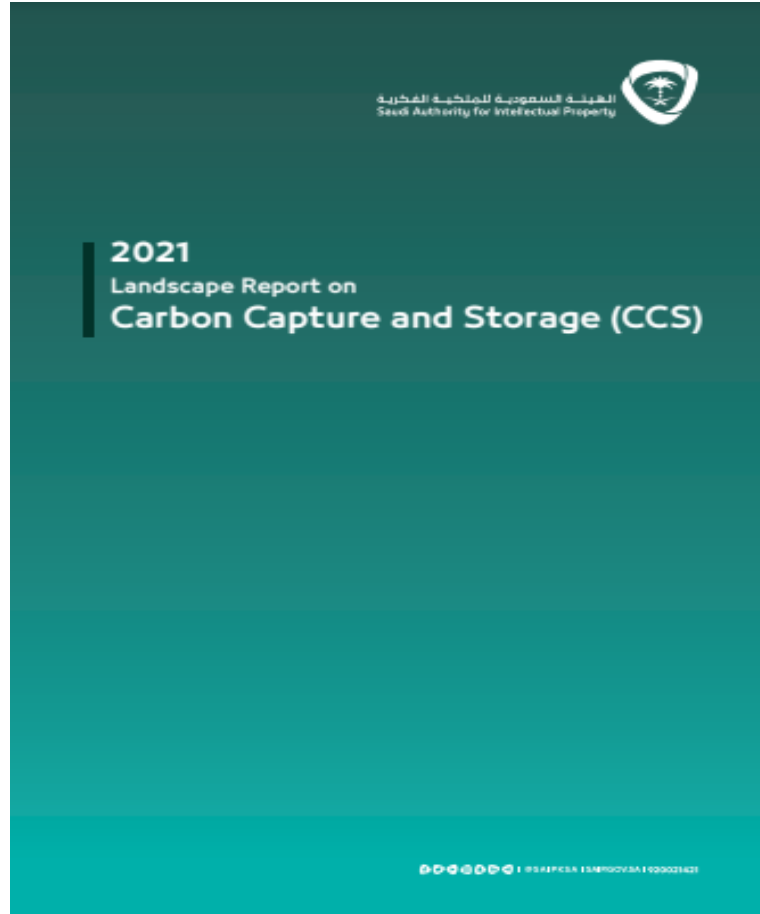

Workshop to Review the findings carbon capture and storage report

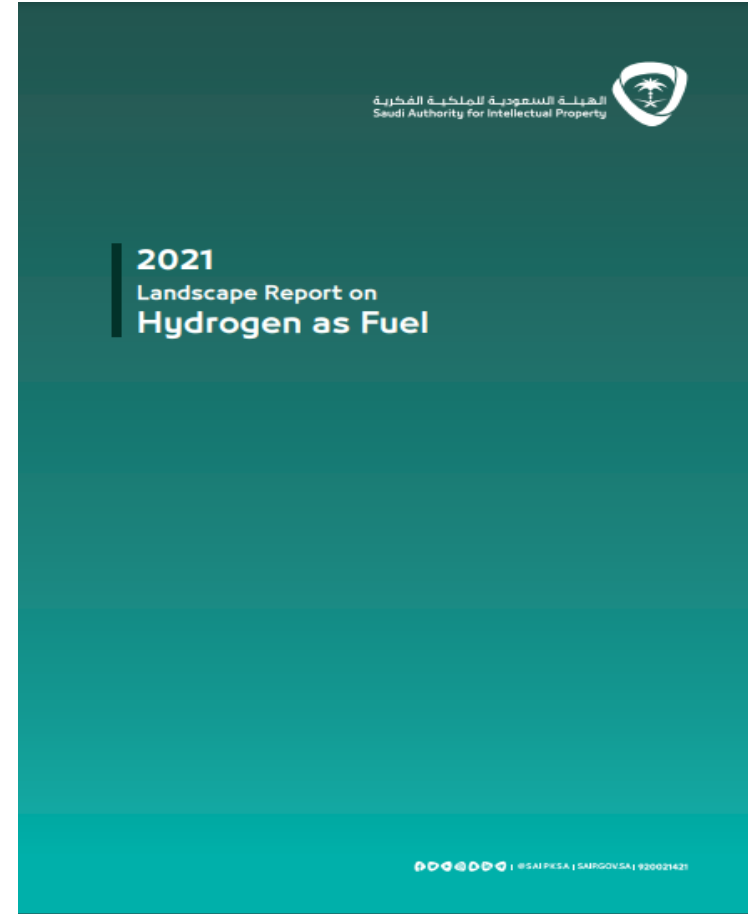

Workshop to Review the findings carbon capture and storage

Importance of Green Innovation and Technology Transfer

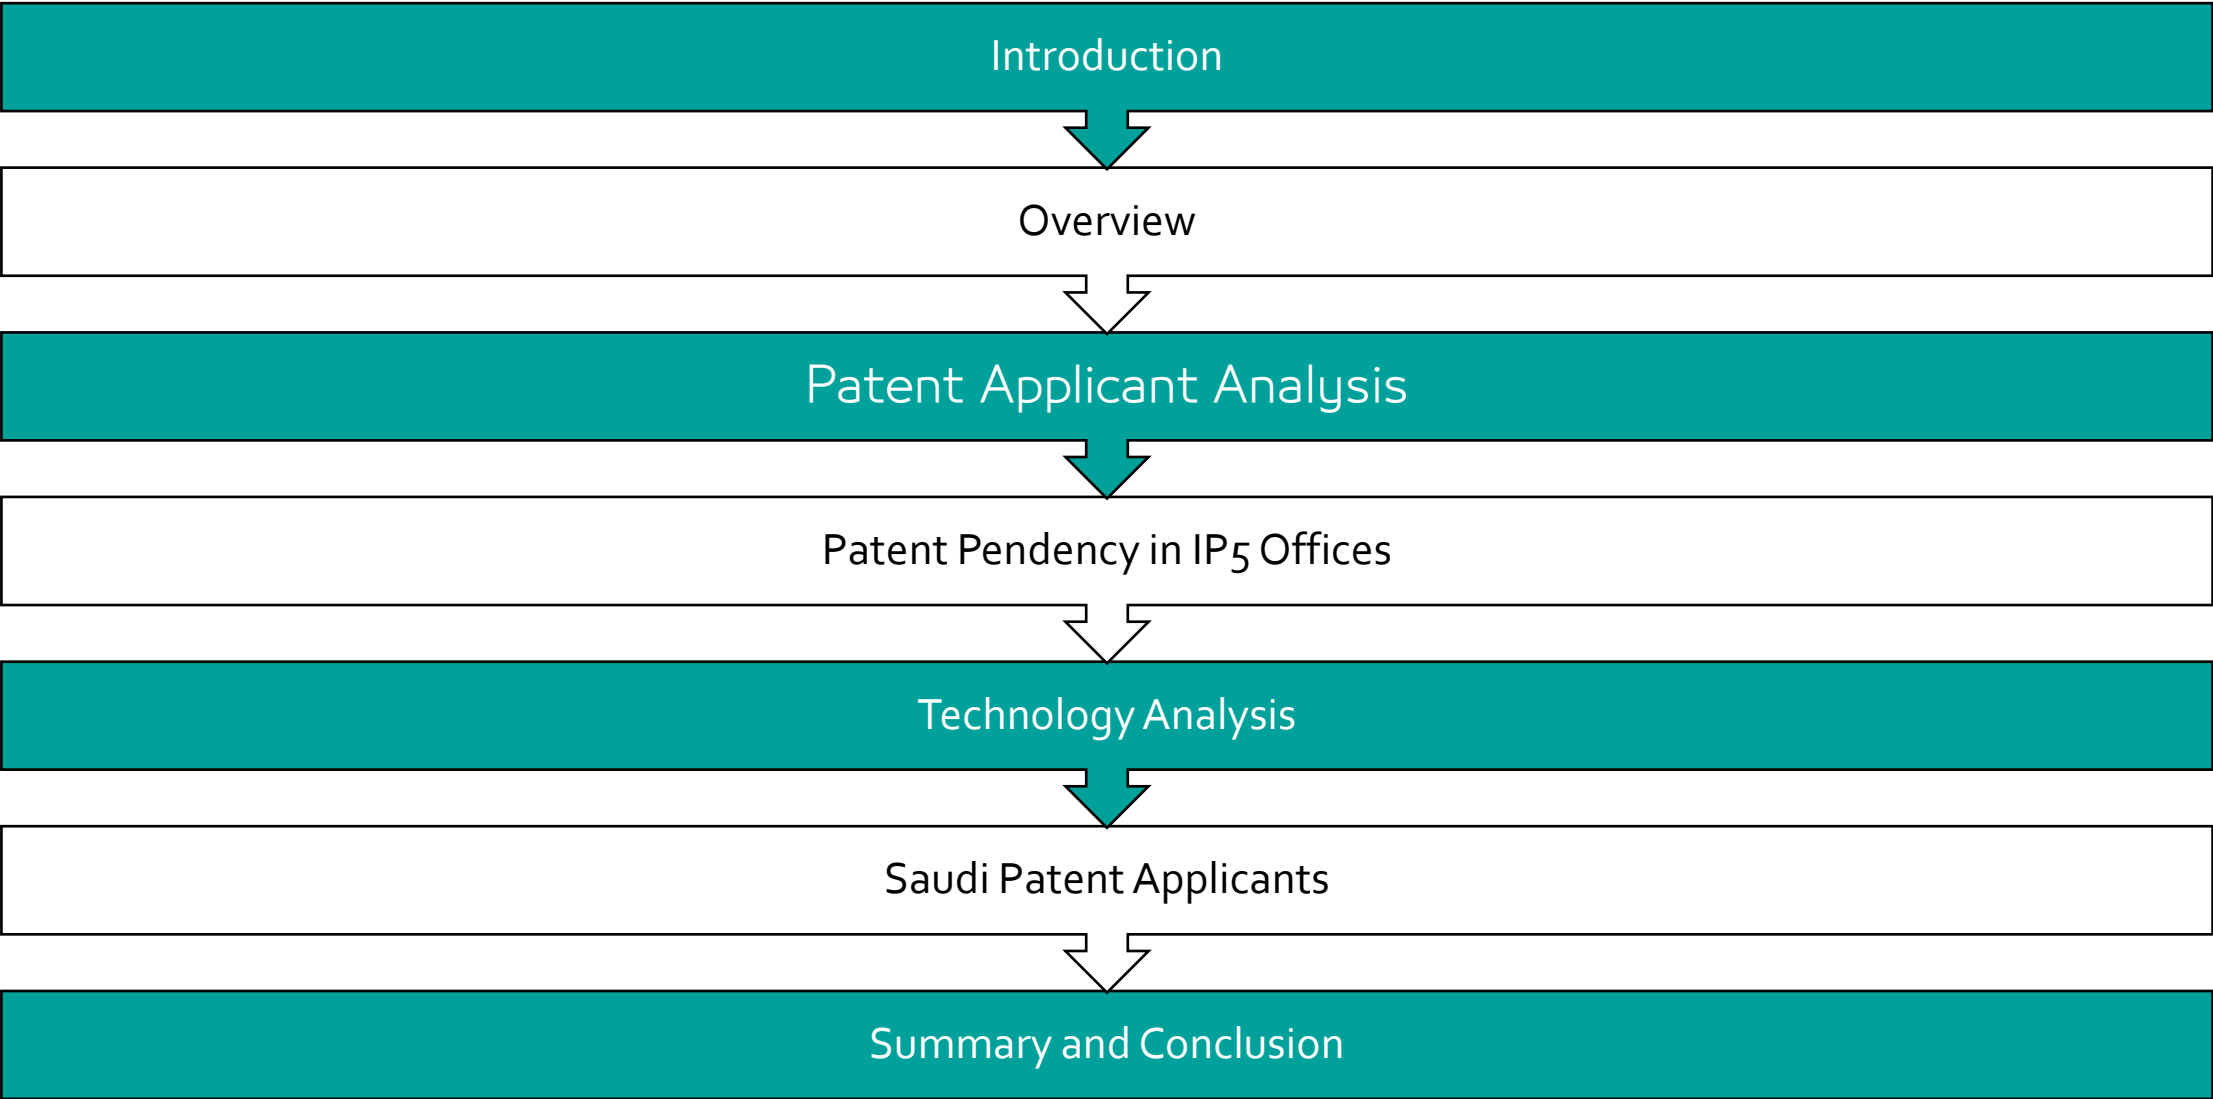

Carbon Capture and Storage

Hydrogen as Fuel

Content the reports

Benefits of a Landscape Report for Entities

Industry Understanding and Insight

Partner and Competitor Identification

Assessment of Emerging Technologies and Innovations

Regulatory and Policy Analysis

New Product and Service Development

Consumer Behavior Insights for Marketing and Sales

Informed Investment and Resource Allocation

Risk Management Strategies

Growth, Expansion, and Diversification Opportunities

Thank you

الهيئة السعودية للملكية الفكرية
Saudi Authority for Intellectual Property

 | @SAIPKSA | SAIP.GOV.SA | 920021421