

Comité Intergubernamental sobre Propiedad Intelectual y Recursos Genéticos, Conocimientos Tradicionales y Folclore

Vigésima séptima sesión
Ginebra, 24 de marzo a 4 de abril de 2014

ACREDITACIÓN DE DETERMINADAS ORGANIZACIONES

Documento preparado por la Secretaría

1. En su primera sesión, celebrada en Ginebra del 30 de abril al 3 de mayo de 2001, el Comité Intergubernamental sobre Propiedad Intelectual y Recursos Genéticos, Conocimientos Tradicionales y Folclore (“el Comité”) aprobó algunas cuestiones de organización y procedimiento, en particular, la concesión de la condición de observador ad hoc a varias organizaciones que habían expresado el deseo de participar en la labor del Comité (véase el informe aprobado por el Comité, párrafo 18 del documento WIPO/GRTKF/IC/1/13).
2. Desde entonces, otras organizaciones han expresado a la Secretaría el deseo de que se les conceda la misma condición en ulteriores sesiones del Comité. El Anexo del presente documento contiene los nombres y otros datos de las organizaciones que, antes del 23 de enero de 2014, solicitaron la acreditación para participar en la vigésima sexta sesión del Comité. Se invitó a los solicitantes a rellenar un formulario de solicitud; los datos de las organizaciones que figuran en el Anexo se exponen exactamente tal y como se han recibido de cada organización.
3. Se invita al Comité a aprobar la acreditación como observadores ad hoc de las organizaciones mencionadas en el Anexo del presente documento.

Application Form for Accreditation as Ad Hoc Observer to the WIPO Intergovernmental Committee on Intellectual Property and Genetic Resources, Traditional Knowledge and Folklore^{1,2}

BIOGRAPHICAL DETAILS OF THE APPLICANT ORGANIZATION

Full name of the Organization:

International Information and Networking Centre for Intangible Cultural Heritage in the Asia-Pacific Region under the auspices of UNESCO (ICHCAP)

Description of the Organization: (maximum 150 words)

The International Information and Networking Centre for Intangible Cultural Heritage in the Asia-Pacific Region under the auspices of UNESCO' (hereinafter ICHCAP) was approved by UNESCO at its 35th General Conference in 2009. In 2010, the Agreement between the government of Korea and UNESCO was signed, and in 2011, the Korean parliament revised the relevant laws and the centre's official establishment was concluded. ICHCAP's main role is to strengthen information and networking within the framework of the 2003 UNESCO Convention. In light of this, we support activities directed toward intangible cultural heritage safeguarding among the forty-eight Member States of the Asia-Pacific region with a primary function of disseminating information and building networks in the cultural heritage field. We intend to enhance cultural diversity in the region and promote sustainable development through various safeguarding activities.

Main aims and objectives of the Organization: (Please use a bulleted list)

- To promote the UNESCO 2003 Convention for the Safeguarding of the Intangible Cultural Heritage and contribute to implementing it in the Asia-Pacific region
- To increase the participation of communities, groups, and individuals in ICH safeguarding and raise regional awareness about ICH
- To enhance regional capacity for ICH safeguarding by coordinating and disseminating information
- To foster regional and international cooperation for ICH safeguarding

Main activities of the Organization: (Please use a bulleted list)

ICHCAP's activities and programmes are carried out in conformity with the 2003 Convention and, in particular, its purposes and objectives and definitions.

Please do not enclose any attachment with your application.

¹ Please note that the decision on accreditation will not be made by the Secretariat, but by the Member States at the beginning of the session of the Intergovernmental Committee. It is therefore possible that certain organizations may not receive accreditation. Therefore, if the requesting organization is not based in Geneva, it might not be advisable to travel to Geneva for the sole purpose of participating in the session of the Committee until accreditation has been granted.

² Please note that this application form may be presented to the Committee exactly in the form received. Please therefore, as far as possible, complete the form using a type-writer or word processor. The completed form should preferably be emailed to grtkf@wipo.int
