

Marrakesh Treaty Questionnaire – Denmark

1. Please indicate the relevant provisions in your national legislation providing for or regulating the limitations and exceptions to facilitate access to published works for persons who are blind, visually impaired, or otherwise print disabled.

Section 17 – 17 e of the Danish Act on Copyright.

2. Does your national legislation permit the cross-border exchange (i.e. exportation) of “accessible format copies”, as defined in Article 2 b) MVT? If yes, under which conditions?

Section 17 c (2) of the Danish Act on Copyright.

An authorized entity can produce, communicate, make available, distribute or lend an accessible format copy to a person who is visually impaired or print-disabled or to another authorized entity within the European Union on a non-profit basis for the purpose of exclusive use by a person who is visually impaired or print-disabled.

3. Does your national legislation allow the importation of “accessible format copies”, as defined in Article 2 b) MVT? If yes, under which conditions?

Section 17 c (3) of the Danish Act on Copyright.

A person who is visually impaired or print-disabled or an authorized entity may obtain or may have access to an accessible format copy, which is communicated, made available, distributed or lent by an authorized entity established within the European Union.

4. Does your national legislation provide a definition of “authorized entity”, as defined in Article 2 c) MVT? If yes, please provide the reference.

Section 17 a (iii) of the Danish Act on Copyright.

An authorized entity is an entity that is authorized or recognized in a member state within the European Union to provide education, training, adaptive reading or information access to persons who are visually impaired or print-disabled on a non-profit basis. It also includes public institutions or non-profit organizations that provide the same service to persons who are visually impaired or print disabled as one of their primary activities or institutional obligations or as a part of their public-interest missions.

5. Please provide a list with contact details of entities that can operate as authorized entities in your territory, and any further information that you can provide, such as number of accessible titles in the catalogue of the authorized entity and the languages covered.
