

Submission of Information by Third Parties

Estonia

According to the Article 23 (6) of the Patents Act of Estonia, any observations and opinions on a patent application submitted by a third person in the course of examination shall be communicated to the applicant who may comment on them. Third persons shall not be involved in processing. Nevertheless, a relevant information contained in observations and opinions will be considered by the Patent Office ex officio during the examination procedure.